Masjid al-Haram/Ka'bah

اللَّهُمَّ افْتَحْ لِي أَبْوَابَ رَحْمَتِكَ

Allahumma iftah li abwaba rahmatik

O Allah, open for me the doors of Your mercy.

This is the general Sunnah dua for entering any masjid, so it is suitable when entering Masjid al-Haram.

When the Prophet ﷺ approached Safa, he recited this verse and began with Safa.

اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ

Allahu akbar

Allah is the Most Great

The Prophet ﷺ said Allaahu 'Akbar (Allah is the Most Great) with each pebble he threw at the three pillars. Then he went forward, stood facing the Qiblah and raised his hands and called upon Allah. That was after (stoning) the first and second pillar As for the third, he stoned it and called out Allahu Akbar with every pebble he threw but when he was finished he left without standing at it (for supplications).

Open dua moment

After stoning the first and second Jamarah, move aside, face the Qiblah, raise your hands, and make personal dua. Do not stand for dua after the third Jamarah.

Ibn Umar رضي الله عنهما said he saw the Prophet ﷺ doing this: standing for dua after the first and middle Jamarah, and leaving after Jamarat al-Aqabah without standing there.

not have been capable of that, and to our Lord is our final destiny. O Allah, we ask You for birr and taqwa in this journey of ours, and we ask You for deeds which please You. O Allah, facilitate our journey and let us cover it's distance quickly. O Allah, You are The Companion on the journey and The Successor over the family, O Allah, I take refuge with You from the difficulties of travel, from having a change of hearts and being in a bad predicament, and I take refuge in You from an ill fated outcome with wealth and family. birr and taqwa: two comprehensive terms which individually, refer to all good actions and obedience i.e. performing the commanded actions and avoiding the prohibited actions. When combined together, birr refers to doing those actions which have been commanded and taqwa refers to avoiding those actions which have been prohibited. A successor: one who succeeds another due to the latter's absence or death. This is the correct meaning of the word khaleefah; thus, it is incorrect to believe that Adam is the khaleefah (vicegerent, as is commonly translated) of Allah on earth because Allah is never absent, and will never die. This supplication proves the correct understanding of this term and shows that Allah succeeds us and guards whom we leave behind when we die or are absent. upon returning the same supplication is recited with the following addition: (We return, repent, worship and praise our Lord.)

Muslim 4/2086, the meaning of sami`a sāmi`un (who listens has heard) is that 'a witness has witnessed our praise of Allah due to His blessings and favor upon us.' It could also be read samma`a sāmi`un, in which case it means 'one who has heard this statement of mine will convey it to another and he will say it as well.' This is due to the attention given to the Thikr (remembrance of Allah) and supplications made during the early morning hours. The meaning of his saying 'Our Lord, be with us and bestow Your favor upon us' is: 'Our Lord, protect us and guard us. Bless us with Your numerous bounties, and avert from us every evil.' See An-Nawawi, Sharh Sahih Muslim 17/39.

O Allah, You have not created this (world) without any purpose. You are free from all blemishes so protect us from the fire of Hell. O Allah, whoever You have admitted into Hell, really You have disgraced him and there are no helpers for the sinners. O Allah, we heard a caller calling us to Imaan saying "Believe in your Rabb!" so we believed. O Allah, forgive our sins and pardon our wrongs and when removing our souls include us among the righteous. O Allah, grant us what You have promised us through Your Messengers and do not put us to shame on the Day of Judgement. Surely You never break Your promise recites this ten times in the morning, and forgive him ten misdeeds and give him the reward of freeing ten slaves and protect him from Satan. Whoever recites this ten times in the evening will get this same reward. An-Nasa'i, 'Amalul-Yawm wal-Laylah (no. 24). Its chain of transmission is sound (Sahih).

 Albani 1/272. Abu Hurayrah «fe narrated that the Prophet j& said:
 "Allah will write one hundred Hasanat for whoever says There is no God but Allah alone, He has no partner. To Allah is possession of everything, and to Him all praise is. He is Capable of all things' ten times in the morning, and forgive him one hundred misdeeds. He will have the reward of freeing a slave and will be protected from Satan throughout the day unto dusk. Whoever says it in the evening will have the same reward." Ahmad 8/704, 16/293. Its chain of transmission is لَا تَجْعَلُوا قَبْرِي عِيداً وَصَلُّوا عَلَيَّ؛ فَإِنَّ صَلَاتَكُمْ تَبْلُغُنِي حَيْثُ كُنْتُمْ

He (ﷺ) also said: 'Do not take my grave as a place of habitual ceremony. Send prayers upon me, for verily your prayers reach me wherever you are
